According to tradition Clas Ohlson held the Annual General Meeting at the distribution center in Insjön, Sweden. Before the meeting began, visitors also had the opportunity to visit an exhibition where selected new products were displayed and demonstrated.

– This year's meeting was again a very successful event. We at Clas Ohlson is so grateful for our shareholders' commitment and that so of our shareholders choose to come to Insjön to attend. Clas Ohlson's Annual General Meeting has evolved into something very unique, and something we are very proud of, says Klas Balkow, President and CEO Clas Ohlson.

It takes nearly four days to transform the distribution center in Insjön to a convention hall that contains both product exhibition and meeting hall with around 1,500 seats. In total more than 4,000 cups of coffee and 1,700 almond pastries were served. For the lunch that was served to the participants of the Annual General Meeting, more than 300 kg salmon was used.
