

Premiere for Clas Ohlson in Namsos

There was great interest when Clas Ohlson's new store in Namsos, Norway, opened this morning. The opening strengthens Clas Ohlson's presence in northern Trøndelag, where Namsos is located.

"It feels fantastic to finally open our store in Namsos. This establishment makes us more accessible in an area where we have not previously had a store," says Christian Egeland, Sales & Operations Manager.

The new store is situated in a newly built property at Bråholmen Retail Park, just outside Namsos town centre. The store has a sales area of 1,200 square metres.

"We have a great, spacious store where we can offer our full range of products. The location by the main road into Namsos town centre is also excellent," says Christian Egeland.

This store opening is Clas Ohlson's first store opening in the financial year 2025/26, and two more store openings are planned for the autumn. Clas Ohlson now has a total of 242 stores.
