

Clas Ohlson's new store in Ängelholm, Sweden, now opened

After careful preparations, Clas Ohlson today opened its 87th store in Sweden as the newly appointed country manager Fredrik Uhrbom, together with store manager Victoria Wingemo, cut the ribbon to the store in Brännborn Center in Ängelholm, Sweden.

Brännborn Center is a shopping center with some 40 stores and approximately six million visitors per year. The new store is built in accordance with Clas Ohlson's new store concept and offers, as always, a wide assortment within Home, Electricity, Leisure, Hardware and Multimedia.

"We already have very appreciated stores in north-western Skåne through our store in central Helsingborg and our newly refurbished store in Väla shopping center and with the opening of this new store, we can offer our customers in the region even closer service. It is a very special day for me as a new country manager to be here at the opening and I am very impressed with what the Ängelholm team has done to get the store in top condition ahead of the opening. I am very much looking forward to meeting our customers in the store, says Fredrik Uhrbom, Country Manager Sweden at Clas Ohlson.

Clas Ohlson's new store in Ängelholm has a retail space of approximately 802 square meters and the catchment area spans over the north-western part of Skåne.

With the new store in Ängelholm, Clas Ohlson offers its customers an omni-channel experience with e-commerce and more than 200 stores in six markets.
