

Clas Ohlson Returns to Skärholmen Centrum

Clas Ohlson's new store in Skärholmen Centrum, outside Stockholm, opened this morning. After a two-year absence, Clas Ohlson once again has a presence in Skärholmen Centrum.

"It feels incredibly exciting to return with a new store. We opened our very first store in Skärholmen 19 years ago, and we're looking forward to once again meeting our customers on-site in the centre," says Andreas Helgesson, Country Operations Manager.

Customers will find Clas Ohlson's wide and affordable range of products in the new store, which has a sales area of 934 square metres.

"We've secured a great, prominent location in the centre. It'll be easy to find everything you need for your home fixing projects," Andreas Helgesson adds.

This opening marks Clas Ohlson's twelfth store launch out of a total of thirteen planned for the current financial year, which ends on 30 April. During the 2025/2026 financial year, the store network is planned to expand with an additional 10 stores.

Clas Ohlson was founded in 1918 as a mail order business in Insjön, Sweden. Today we are a retail company with customers in three markets, approximately 5,000 co-workers and annual sales of approximately 10 billion SEK. Our share is listed on Nasdaq Stockholm. A lot has happened since the start in 1918, but one thing has remained the same over the years; that we want to help people to improve their everyday lives by offering practical and sustainable solutions at attractive prices.
