

Clas Ohlson opens a new store in Uddevalla

Today, at 10 am a new Clas Ohlson store was opened in Torp shopping centre outside Uddevalla. The store is located in a shopping centre undergoing expansion and strengthens Clas Ohlson's presence in and around Uddevalla.

Clas Ohlson already has a store located in the centre of Uddevalla since previously.

“It is very exciting to open a new store in Uddevalla. We firmly believe in Torp as a commercial area and look forward to being even more accessible to our customers in Bohuslän,” says Johannes Åverling, Operating Manager Sweden at Clas Ohlson.

Customers will be able to get help to simplify their daily lives with our smart products and knowledgeable Clas Ohlson store staff. Products can also be ordered online, and customers can pick them up after 30 minutes using the Click & Collect feature, in or outside the store.

Recently, a whole new section of Torp shopping centre was opened that has doubled the area of specialised stores to 46,500 square metres. During the autumn, 25 new stores opened in the shopping centre which now has nearly one hundred stores in total.
