

Clas Ohlson publishes Annual Report for 2024/25

Clas Ohlson's Annual Report for financial year 2024/25 is now available at about.clasohlson.com/en.

In addition to detailed information on the recent year's financial developments, the Annual Report also contains follow-up on the company's sustainability work, which this year includes an updated double materiality assessment (DMA).

"We have a strong corporate culture where we always strive to stay one step ahead and move up to the next level. Despite a highly challenging business environment, the 2024/25 financial year was Clas Ohlson's best ever. This was the outcome of a consistent focus on our core business, clear priorities and strong teamwork across the organisation," President and CEO Kristofer Tonström comments in the CEO statement.

The Annual Report is available about.clasohlson.com in both Swedish and English versions and is designed to be read primarily on screen. There will be a limited number of printed copies available which can be ordered via telephone +46 247 444 00 or via e-mail ir@clasohlson.se.

Today, Clas Ohlson also files the ESEF version (European Single Electronic Format) of the 2024/25 annual report with the Swedish Financial Supervisory Authority.

Clas Ohlson was founded in 1918 as a mail order business in Insjön, Sweden. Today we are a retail company with customers in three markets, approximately 5,000 co-workers and annual sales of approximately 12 billion SEK. Our share is listed on Nasdaq Stockholm. A lot has happened since the start in 1918, but one thing has remained the same over the years; that we want to help people fix their homes with practical and sustainable solutions at attractive prices. Visit about.clasohlson.com/en to read more about us and how we make home fixing available, sustainable and enjoyable for everyone.
