

Clas Ohlson's Annual and Sustainability Report for 2021/22 now available

Clas Ohlson's integrated annual report for 2021/22 is now available at about.clasohlson.com.

The Annual and Sustainability Report is a summary of the past year with examples of how the company's strategy is put into practice and follows up on previously communicated financial and sustainability goals. The report also contains both standard and specific disclosures on sustainability aspects based on the GRI Standards. The scope is described in the GRI index in the report.

The Annual and Sustainability Report is available in both Swedish and English versions. This year's report is primarily designed for reading on screens. There is a limited amount of printed copies available which can be ordered via telephone +46 247 444 00.

Today, Clas Ohlson also files the ESEF version (European Single Electronic Format) of the 2021/22 annual report with the Swedish Financial Supervisory Authority and publishes it on our website. The format of the report is xHTML (Extensible Hypertext Markup Language). In line with the ESEF requirements, the primary financial statements have been provided with XBRL tags.

Clas Ohlson was founded in 1918 as a mail order business in Insjön, Sweden. Today we are a retail company with customers in four markets, approximately 5,000 co-workers and annual sales of approximately 8.8 billion SEK. Our share is listed on Nasdaq Stockholm. A lot has happened since the start in 1918, but one thing has remained the same over the years; that we want to help and inspire people to improve their everyday lives by offering smart, simple, practical solutions at attractive prices. Visit about.clasohlson.com/en to read more about us and how we simplify home fixing for everyone, responsibly.
