

Clas Ohlson's second store in Linköping is now open

This morning, Clas Ohlson opened a new store in Linköping in Sweden. The store is Clas Ohlson's second store in Linköping.

“We have been waiting for several years to find the right location and be able to open another store in Linköping. It feels great to finally be able to open the store and become even more accessible to all customers in Linköping and the surrounding area,” says Andreas Helgesson, Country Operations Manager.

The new store is located in Tornby shopping center, just outside Linköping. The store has a sales area of about 1,000 square meters.

“The store looks so good, and I am happy to present a store in which our customers will find lots of inspiration, guidance and the right products for their home-fixing. We have particularly highlighted our range in storage and organisation in an own department. Just like in our store in the city centre, we can also offer smooth deliveries of online orders. Customer can pick-up their orders within 30 minutes,” says store manager Sanna Samuelsson.

Clas Ohlson was founded in 1918 as a mail order business in Insjön, Sweden. Today we are a retail company with customers in four markets, approximately 5,000 co-workers and annual sales of approximately 8.8 billion SEK. Our share is listed on Nasdaq Stockholm. A lot has happened since the start in 1918, but one thing has remained the same over the years; that we want to help and inspire people to improve their everyday lives by offering smart, simple, practical solutions at attractive prices.
