

New store strengthens Clas Ohlson's presence in Bergen

Clas Ohlson opened a new store in Os in Norway this morning. The opening marks the company's seventh location in the Bergen area.

"We are very excited to open our new store in Os and further strengthen our presence in the Bergen region," says Christian Egeland, Sales & Operations Manager.

The new store, Clas Ohlson's seventh in the region, is located in Thon Senter Os shopping centre, which recently added a new floor to accommodate the store. A new tunnel has improved travel options to Bergen, and the municipality has seen positive population growth since the tunnel opened.

"Os has experienced strong growth in recent years. We're thrilled to have this new location and the opportunity to establish ourselves here," says Egeland.

The store covers 1,049 square metres. It is Clas Ohlson's fourth opening in the 2025/26 financial year, with four more planned before the year ends on 30 April. The company now operates a total of 245 stores.
