Clas Ohlson's new store in Burlöv Center opened this morning. After a four-year absence, Clas Ohlson is now back in Burlöv just outside Malmö in southern Sweden.

"We are very happy to be back and once again able to serve our customers in Burlöv. Burlöv Center has experienced strong growth in recent years, and with the new store, we will be even more accessible to our customers in Burlöv and the Malmö area," says Andreas Helgesson, Country Operations Manager.

The new store has a sales area of 1,156 square meters and becomes Clas Ohlson's sixth store in and around Malmö.

"Together with our other stores and a rapidly growing e-commerce, it is easy for customers to access our wide and affordable range of DIY products," says Andreas Helgesson.

This store opening is Clas Ohlson's thirteenth of the calendar year 2024, with three more store openings planned for the autumn. Clas Ohlson now has a total of 236 stores, with 101 in Sweden, 97 in Norway, and 38 in Finland.
